BUDAPEST INSTITUTE

SGI Slovak Governance Institute
Inštitút pre dobre spravovanú spoločnosť

CERGE EI

Policy workshops for V4 think tanks: long term unemployment

11th June, 2014

1074 Budapest, Dohány u. 84.

Programme

10.00 –10.30	Welcome, Who is who, coffee+cake
10.30- 11.00	János Köllő (Institute of Economics, HAS): Unskilled Unemployment – A Tale of Three Countries
11:00-13:30	Academic papers: HU, PL, SK Presenter / Discussant Anna Adamecz (Budapest Institute): Impact Evaluation of an EU-funded Employment Programme - Effect on the Uneducated — F. Pertold (CERGE-EI) Monika Maksim (Copernicus University, Toruń): Evaluation of Active Labour Market Policies in Poland — Zs. Cseres-Gergely (Budapest Institute) Lucia Mýtna Kureková (Slovak Governance Institute): The Implementation of Activation Works in Slovakia — I. Styczyńska (CASE)
13:30-14:30	Lunch break
14:30-16:30	Roundtable discussion: What can be learnt from the public works programmes of Hungary and Slovakia? What are the most efficient alternative policies for combatting LTU? Design and political economy issues.– Opening words: Balázs Váradi (Budapest Institute) Participants: Lucia Mýtna Kureková (SGI), Monika Maksim (Copernicus University), Filip Pertold (CERGE-EI), Ágota Scharle (BI), Izabela Styczyńska (CASE).
16:30-17:00	Policy brief discussion: Recommendations for the design of policies aimed at long-term unemployed in Visegrad countries
17:00-18:00	Coffee/beer

Visegrad Fund